CREDENTIALS: Appropriate credentials are required for access to the Wachovia Center and should be kept visible at all times. In accordance with NBA regulations, the Sixers will limit the number of season credentials. In order to be considered for a season credential, an individual media member must cover a minimum of 30 Sixers home games (75 percent), while others will be allotted on a game-by-game basis. A single-game credential allows the same access and privileges as a season pass. In accordance with NBA rules, all season passes must include a photo headshot of the approved individual. Media members wishing to cover a single game must contact the Philadelphia 76ers Public Relations staff at least 24 hours prior to the intended game. Passes are issued on a space-available basis for all single-game requests. First-time requests must be in written form on company letterhead and received by mail, or by fax at (215) 339-7632. Credentials will be left at the Press Entrance (located on the North side of the Main Concourse Level) and can be picked up two hours prior to tip-off on game nights.

ENTRANCE: Media members attending a Sixers game at the Wachovia Center should enter the building through the Press Entrance, located on the North side of the Main Concourse Level.

PARKING: Parking passes are issued prior to the season to those media members who regularly cover the team. Media members wishing to cover a single game, and requiring parking, must contact the Philadelphia 76ers Public Relations staff at least 48 hours prior to game day. Media members attending Sixers games should park in Lot F, located between the Wachovia Center and the Wachovia Spectrum, along the 11th Street side.

MEDIA ROOM: The media room is located at the Northeast corner of the Event Floor Level. Appropriate credentials are required for media room access. The media room consists of a dining facility, working stations and complimentary wireless internet access. Food, game notes, media kits, storage space and working space are available to the media during the course of an event. Food and beverages are served two hours before tip-off time. Refreshments are available during the game. A nominal fee of $6 is charged for a pre-game meal.

SEATING: Home and visiting television will be seated courtside at the scorers table. Home and visiting radio will be seated in section 112 seating location. All other media will be assigned seats on the baseline (section 118) on a space-available basis.

STILL & VIDEO PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photo work space is limited and your cooperation is appreciated. Still and video photographers are limited to the baselines at each end of the court. In accordance with the NBA policy, no hard-back chairs are permitted courtside and all photographers must keep clear of the escape lanes on both sides of the basket stanchions. Rubber lens shades are required for all still photographers who are credentialed to shoot a 76ers game.

LOCKER ROOM ACCESS: The locker rooms are located on the west side (Broad Street) of the Event Level. In accordance with NBA policy, the 76ers locker room will be open 90 minutes prior and close 45 minutes prior to tip-off. Following a ten-minute cooling off period, the locker room will open after the game has been completed. Only credentialed media are allowed in the locker room and no autographs are permitted. Cell phones are not permitted in the locker rooms, per NBA policy. All media members are asked to have their passes visible at all times while in the Wachovia Center.

GAME NOTES & STATS: Game notes for both teams will be available in the press room two hours prior to tip-off. For visiting media, game notes, credentials, programs and recent news clips will be delivered to their hotel as early as possible upon arrival in Philadelphia. Play-by-play, quarterly boxes, halftime boxes, final notes and quotes will be delivered to all media locations as quickly as possible. Stat monitors are available to all in media the press room.

PRACTICE HOTLINE: Media members can access practice times on the 76ers 24 hours a day through a special automated hotline. Please contact the 76ers Public Relations office for the hotline number.

PRACTICES & SHOOTAROUNDS: Sixers practices and gameday shootarounds are held at Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine (PCOM) located at 4190 City Ave. in Philadelphia. Parking is available in the garage across from the practice facility and in the parking lot across the street behind the facility. Please call the Sixers Media Hotline for practice and shootaround times.

TELEPHONES: The Sixers have a limited number of telephones available to working media members in the media section (section 118). Additional requests for telephone lines should be directed to the Wachovia Center Operations Department at (215) 389-9490.

MARC ZUMOFF

★ TELEVISION BROADCASTER ★

Emmy-Award winner Marc Zumoff enters his 13th season as the Sixers television play-by-play announcer and his 25th as a part of the 76ers broadcast team. Zumoff, a Philadelphia native, was officially named play-by-play announcer on Aug. 17, 1994. He has been honored with an Emmy for best sports play-by-play broadcaster nine times.

Zumoff's various freelance assignments include hosting the news and public affairs show Radio Times with Marty Moss-Coane on the local National Public Radio affiliate WHYY-FM. During the summer, he co-hosts several stops on the Sixers Summer Hoops Tour. He also appears regularly at community functions on behalf of the team and spearheads two annual charitable endeavors: the Tee off with Zumoff golf outing in September to benefit the Pathway School for learning disabled students and the Points for Peace 3-on-3 basketball tournament at the Palestra in March. He also runs a workshop on How to Break into Broadcasting, and he is co-authoring a book on the same topic.

Zumoff has done play-by-play for NBA-TV and for Turner Sports' coverage of the NBA, including both regular season and playoff games, the network's coverage of the Goodwill Games, as well as play-by-play for CN8's coverage of college football.

Prior to joining the Sixers broadcast team full time, Zumoff was a part of the now-defunct PRISM Sports Network and has done play-by-play for a variety of events and teams in the region, including the Philadelphia Flyers, the Philadelphia Big Five and the Philadelphia Fever of the Major Indoor Soccer League.

Zumoff broke into television as the play-by-play talent for the Fever which helped lead to his position with PRISM. During his days at Temple, Zumoff announced Owl football and basketball games. Following his graduation from Temple University, he had stints at WBUD and WTTM Radio in Trenton, N.J. and WHWH Radio in Princeton, N.J.

Zumoff lives in suburban Philadelphia with his wife Debbie and their two sons Jake (17) and Pace (13).

STEVE MIX

★ TELEVISION ANALYST ★

Steve Mix returns for his 20th season with the 76ers and 13th as the full-time color analyst, providing insight to the game that only a former player can provide.

Mix, a former 76ers forward and NBA All-Star, played 13 seasons in the NBA and ABA from 1969 to 1983. He logged time in 787 games where he scored 8,355 points for an average of 10.6 points per game. In his nine seasons with Philadelphia (1973 to 1982), Mix played on three teams that advanced to the NBA Finals (1977, 1980 and 1982). He held the 76ers single season steals record (212) from 1973-74 to 2002-03 when Allen Iverson broke his record with 225. He finished fourth all-time in career steals (851). He also went to the NBA Finals with the LA Lakers in 1983 where he finished his playing career.

Mix joined the Sixers broadcast team in 1987-88 analyzing road games on WPHL TV-17. However, he can lay claim to starting his broadcasting career in 1975 when after breaking his ankle in the second half of the season, he joined the legendary Bill Campbell for the radio broadcasts, finishing out the season behind the mic. After his playing career was completed, Mix began doing analysis for the University of Toledo basketball team on WSPD TV-13 and then for the Detroit Pistons on WKBD TV-50.

Throughout the off-season, Mix hosts the Steve Mix Basketball Academy in Maumee, Ohio. The Academy introduces young athletes to work ethic, understanding basic concepts, and the level of execution required to succeed at the next level. The goal has been to convert young athletes into players. Recently, Mix was honored by his hometown state as he was elected into Ohio's Basketball Hall of Fame for his career accomplishments in the game.

A native of Toledo, Ohio, Mix played four seasons for the University of Toledo. Mix and his wife of 36 years, Maryalice, have four children: Darrick (34), Stephanie (28), Courtney (24), and Andrew (22).

TODD MACCULLOCH

★ RADIO ANALYST ★

MacCulloch joined the Sixers broadcast team following his retirement from the NBA as a player in September of 2004. During the 2003-04 seasons, he handled the broadcasting position part time, while being sidelined by an eventually career ending ailment.

MacCulloch played for five seasons in the NBA as a member of both the 76ers and the New Jersey Nets. He played in the NBA Finals in both 2001 (with the 76ers) and in 2002 (with the Nets). MacCulloch also played for the Canadian National Team that competed in Sydney for the 2000 Olympic Games. He had been sidelined since February 2002 with foot neuropathy.

A native of Winnipeg, Manitoba, MacCulloch attended the University of Washington before being selected by the 76ers in the second round (47th overall) in the 1999 NBA draft. While in college MacCulloch majored in speech and hearing sciences. The avid movie buff's previous broadcast experience was doing movie reviews for a local radio station in Philadelphia.

MacCulloch currently resides in suburban Philadelphia with his wife Jana and their two dogs, Makena and Piper.

ED SNIDER ★ CHAIRMAN

Ed Snider is one of the true giants of the sports and entertainment industry. His career has been guided by the principle that one must be constantly moving forward in order to succeed, and it's that philosophy that marks his leadership of Comcast-Spectacor today.

Ed first emerged as a leader in Philadelphia's sports business in 1966 when he founded the Philadelphia Flyers. He was the driving force behind the building of the Spectrum, and assumed control of the building in 1971. In 1974, Ed created Spectacor as a management company to oversee the Flyers and Spectrum. Over the next 20 years, Spectacor grew to be a national force in sports and entertainment. Under Ed's guidance, Spectacor started or acquired nearly a dozen businesses over the 20-year period from 1974 through 1994. Many of these enterprises were sold at a time when each was the industry leader in its field.

Perhaps nothing demonstrates Ed's perseverance and desire to succeed like the development of the Wachovia Center, a $210 million state-of-the-art arena completed in 1996. In the summer of 2000, the facility gained national prominence as the host facility for the Republican National Convention. Today, the Wachovia Center and the Wachovia Spectrum comprise the most active sports and entertainment complex in the world.

In 1996, Ed merged Spectacor with Comcast Corporation to form Comcast-Spectacor. The new venture initially consisted of the Philadelphia Flyers, Philadelphia 76ers, Wachovia Center, Wachovia Spectrum and Philadelphia Phantoms. Comcast-Spectacor then joined with the Philadelphia Phillies to form Comcast SportsNet, one of the highest-rated regional sports networks in the country.

Most recently, Comcast-Spectacor has developed Global Spectrum, an international facilities management company; Ovations Food Services, a national concessions company; New Era Tickets, a company which specializes in providing innovative technological solutions for box office management, event management and customer communications; and the Flyers Skate Zone, a series of regional ice skating rinks. These entities all represent components of Ed's vision: take what you do well and grow it.

Ed's success has been recognized by his peers. He was elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1988 and serves on the NHL's Executive Committee. He is a recipient of the Lester Patrick Award for outstanding service to hockey in the United States and has been elected to the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame, the Philadelphia Sports Hall of Fame, the Philadelphia Jewish Sports Hall of Fame and the Flyers Hall of Fame. In 2005, Ed received the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce's William Penn Award, the most prestigious business honor in the region, and the Ellis Island Medal of Honor awarded to Americans of all ethnic backgrounds who have made significant contributions to our society.

One of Snider's recent accomplishments is the creation of the Ed Snider Youth Hockey Foundation, which provides underserved children in the Philadelphia-area with the opportunity to learn to play ice hockey at area rinks. The programs all feature an educational component emphasizing teamwork and goal setting as important life lessons. The Foundation partnered with the School District of Philadelphia to enable students to play hockey as part of the school's physical education curriculum.

In February of 2001, Ed received Temple University's First Annual Sports Leadership Award presented by The Fox School of Business and Management. In May 1999, he was selected by Philadelphia Daily News readers as Philly's Greatest mover and shaker of the millennium in mail-in and online balloting. In December 1999, he received the Anti-Defamation League's prestigious Americanism Award. In 1985, Ed received an honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree from MCP Hahnemann University and in May of 1999, he received the same from Thomas Jefferson Hospital. He is also a Benefactor of the Sol C. Snider Entrepreneurial Center of the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania. Other Board memberships include the Isadore Brodsky Institute for Cancer and Blood Diseases at MCP Hahnemann University, National Foundation for Celliac Awareness, The Atlas Society, the Simon Wiesenthal Center, the World Affairs Council of Philadelphia, the Middle East Forum and the Foundation for Individual Rights in Education (FIRE).

Ed and his wife Christine reside in suburban Philadelphia. His children include daughters Lindy, Tina, and Sarena and sons Craig, Jay, and Samuel, as well as 15 grandchildren.

Additionally, Luukko, who is also Chairman of Global Spectrum, is responsible for creating new business opportunities for Comcast-Spectacor in the fields of facility management, sports ownership and operation, food and concessions, as well as consulting in those same fields.

Luukko's extensive sports management career began in 1981 after parlaying an internship at the New Haven Coliseum into the Director of Marketing for the facility. He later joined the Providence Civic Center as the facility's assistant general manager. In 1985 Luukko joined Spectacor Management Group (SMG), at the time owned in part by Snider, and soon became Vice President of SMG's Western Region and facility manager for SMG's Los Angeles Coliseum and Sports Arena. During that time, he was credited for greatly improving the facilities' reputation. In addition, he had spent time overseeing other SMG facilities.

In 1993, Luukko left SMG to become President of the Spectrum. In the following years he became responsible for managing Comcast-Spectacor's growing interests, and helped the company into a nationally recognized leader in sports and entertainment with the acquisition of Globe Facility Services in 2000. After renaming the company Global Spectrum, the public assembly management firm grew from seven facilities in 2000 to just over 60 facilities in 2006. Additionally in 2000, Comcast-Spectacor acquired Leisure Food Services and renamed the company Ovations Food Services. Comcast-Spectacor made a significant investment into ticketing technology company, Paciolan and implored their technology to create a full-service ticketing company, New Era Tickets in 2004.

Under Luukko's leadership, Comcast-Spectacor helped Philadelphia garner national attention and awareness by attracting the 2002 NBA All-Star Weekend, the 2001 NCAA Men's East Regionals, the 2001 and 2002 X Games, the 2000 NCAA Women's Final Four and the 2000 Republican National Convention, and numerous other sports and entertainment events to the City of Philadelphia.

A recognized leader in the facility management industry, Luukko was the 2000 recipient of the City of Hope's Tri-State Labor Award. He also received the 2002 prestigious Harold J. VanderZwaag Distinguished Alumnus Award by the Sports Management Program of the University of Massachusetts for his accomplishments in the field of sports management.

Luukko actively serves on the Board of Directors for the Philadelphia Convention and Visitors Bureau, the Philadelphia Sports Congress, Paciolan Technologies, as well as the Battleship New Jersey Museum. He also serves on the Board of Directors of the Ed Snider Youth Hockey Foundation.

BILLY KING

★ PRESIDENT ★

Named team president on May 26, 2003, Billy King enters his 10th season with the Philadelphia 76ers, marking his fourth season as the president of the organization. King oversees all aspects of basketball operations, as well as all facets of business operations. He continues to serve as the 76ers point man for all trades, player procurement and player contract negotiations.

King joined the 76ers on June 2, 1997, as vice president of basketball administration, a role in which he served as the point person for basketball operations. Less than a year later (May 19, 1998), he was promoted to general manager, and on April 5, 2000, he signed a new multi-year contract with the team.

Prior to King's arrival in Philadelphia, the Sixers posted six-consecutive sub-.500 records, dating back to the 1991-92 season. During his nine-year tenure, the Sixers have made drastic improvements in the win-loss column. In his first season, the squad posted a nine-game improvement, sixth-best in the NBA. In 1998-99, Philadelphia earned its first NBA Playoff appearance since 1990-91 ending a six-year drought and advanced to the Eastern Conference Semifinals in 1998-99 and 1999-2000. The 76ers captured their first Atlantic Division Title on the heels of a 56-26 season in 2000-01 and went on to capture their first Eastern Conference Championship since 1983 to advance to the 2001 NBA Finals. The 2002-03 season marked the 76ers fifth-straight trip to the playoffs, the longest since a 12-year span from 1978 to 1987, and the fourth-straight season with 40 or more wins.

Before joining the 76ers, King served as an assistant coach for the Indiana Pacers under Larry Brown for four seasons. He joined the professional ranks after spending four seasons as an assistant at Illinois State University under former 76ers assistant bench coach Bob Bender. He also spent one year as a color analyst for ESPN's basketball coverage of the Ohio Valley Conference.

During his collegiate career, King was an outstanding defensive player on Duke University's nationally ranked teams in the late 1980s and received the Henry Iba Corinthian National Defensive Player of the Year award following his senior season. King helped the Blue Devils to a 112-27 record, an average of 28 wins per season as Duke went to the Final Four twice, won the Atlantic Coast Conference regular-season championship and two ACC Tournament titles. In 1987, he helped the USA Basketball Men's World University Games silver-medal squad to a 7-1 record, with its only loss coming against a Drazen Petrovic-led Yugoslavia team in the gold medal game.

On May 26, 2005, King was one of nine individuals named to serve on the newly formed USA Basketball Men's Senior National Team Program Advisory Panel. He is currently a member of USA Basketball's 2005-08 board of directors. He previously was USA Basketball's treasurer (2001-04) and was an athlete representative on the 1997-2000 executive committee. King also served on the USA Basketball Men's Senior National Team Committees for the 1997-2000 and 2001-04 quadrenniums. As a player, he was a member of the 1987 USA World University Games that claimed the silver medal.

King has been honored and recognized by numerous organizations for his dedication and commitment to success. In July 2000, he was honored as the Sports Executive of the Year at the Rainbow Sports Awards, reflecting not only his accomplishments in the sports industry, but also the grace, dignity, commitment and humanity that he exemplifies. In 2001, Street and Smith's Business Journal named him one of the industries "Forty under 40." He was also inducted into Duke University's Hall of Honor on Dec. 2, 2001, in its charter group. In May 2003, Sports Illustrated named King, along with fellow 76ers Sonny Hill and Allen Iverson, one of the "101 Most Influential Minorities in Sports," a list that included "men and women that are reshaping the sports industry and opening doors through which others will follow." King also was honored by the African-American Ethnic Sports Hall of Fame as the NBA Executive of the Year in July 2003.

Born Jan. 23, 1966, King was a political science major at Duke and follows national and local politics closely. He is also a movie buff and previously hosted his own movie review show for WBNQ-Radio in Bloomington, Ill., titled "Kings Clips."

TONY DILEO

★ SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, BASKETBALL OPERATIONS ★

Tony DiLeo enters his 17th season with the 76ers basketball operations department. After spending four seasons as the Sixers director of player personnel (1999-03), DiLeo was promoted to senior vice president/assistant general manager in September 2003.

DiLeo assists President Billy King with player procurement through his evaluation of amateur and professional talent, and supervises the team's draft effort and college and professional scouting systems.

During his tenure, DiLeo has been involved in every aspect of the team's basketball operations, including coaching, scouting and management. Formerly the team's director of scouting and assistant coach, DiLeo has extensive experience in international basketball, both as a player and coach. He played and coached in West Germany for 10 seasons before joining the Sixers staff for the 1990-91 season. He coached the West German men's and women's teams from 1979-90, winning nine national titles in the country's top division. DiLeo was selected as the West German federation National Coach (1981-85) and the country's coach of the year in 1987.

In 1984, DiLeo wrote and published the European Basketball Handbook, a guide to accommodate American players overseas. He also has written a manual on rule differences among international basketball, the NBA and the NCAA.

A star at Cinnaminson (N.J.) High School, DiLeo went on to play at Tennessee Tech and LaSalle University. As a junior at La Salle, he was a first team Academic All-American and graduated maxima cum laude from the School of Business.

He and his wife, Anna, and sons, T.J. and Max, live in South Jersey.

COURTNEY WITTE

★ DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL ★

Courtney Witte (pronounced Witty) enters his ninth season with 76ers basketball operations department and 20th overall in the NBA. After serving as the Sixers director of scouting for two seasons (2001-03), Witte was promoted to his current position, director of player personnel, in September 2003.

As director of player personnel, Witte will continue to be involved in all aspects of the teams basketball operations along with draft-night preparation and will coordinate the 76ers professional scouting and collegiate player evaluation process.

Witte joined the Sixers prior to the 1998-99 season as a video coordinator and scout after spending 11 seasons with the Indiana Pacers most recently as their advance scout. Witte oversaw the reconstruction of the 76ers state-of-the-art video room that features both nonlinear computerized and linear video-editing systems. He served as an assistant coach/director of scouting for the Sixers, after a two-year stint as an assistant coach/head scout.

Witte played collegiate basketball at Indiana University (1984-86) under Coach Bob Knight, having the distinction of being his first junior college recruit. During his two seasons at Indiana, the Hoosiers made two NCAA tournament appearances, highlighted by a victory over the top-ranked North Carolina Tar Heels in the Final Eight.

MAURICE CHEEKS

★ HEAD COACH ★

Maurice Cheeks, named the 21st head coach in team history on May 23, 2005, enters his second season in Philadelphia after posting a 38-44 mark in his 2005-06 debut.

Last season as head coach of the Sixers, Cheeks guided the team to a season-best six-game win streak from Nov. 11-16, 2005 - their longest such streak in three seasons - and the team shot 45.8 percent from the field, which ranked 10th in the NBA and was the Sixers best mark in 13 seasons.

He also reached a personal milestone in his coaching career when he earned his 200th career win on April 18, 2006, vs. New Jersey. Through his five years as a head coach in Philadelphia and Portland, Cheeks has posted a 200-183 (.522) record.

Prior to joining the Sixers, Cheeks spent three-plus seasons as head coach of the Portland Trail Blazers (2001-05). He helped the Blazers reach the NBA Playoffs twice, and his 2002-03 squad tied for second in the Pacific Division with a 50-32 record.

Before joining Portland on June 27, 2001, Cheeks spent seven seasons as an assistant coach for the Sixers, working under head coaches John Lucas (1994-96), Johnny Davis (1996-97), and Larry Brown (1997-2001). In 2000-01 under Brown, Cheeks helped guide the 76ers to a record of 56-26 (.683) and a spot in the NBA Finals.

Cheeks played 15 seasons in the NBA, the first 11 with Philadelphia, before stints with San Antonio, New York, Atlanta and New Jersey. He retired in 1993 as the league's all-time steals leader and was fifth on the career assists list. Maurice led the 76ers in assists in all 11 seasons he played in Philadelphia and also topped the team in steals in each of his first 10 years.

He was selected to the NBA's All-Defensive Team five times (First Team: 1983, 1984, 1985, 1986; Second Team: 1987) and played in four All-Star games (1983, 1986, 1987, 1988). He was a member of 76ers 1983 World Championship team.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

YOUR SIXERS. OUR COMMUNITY.

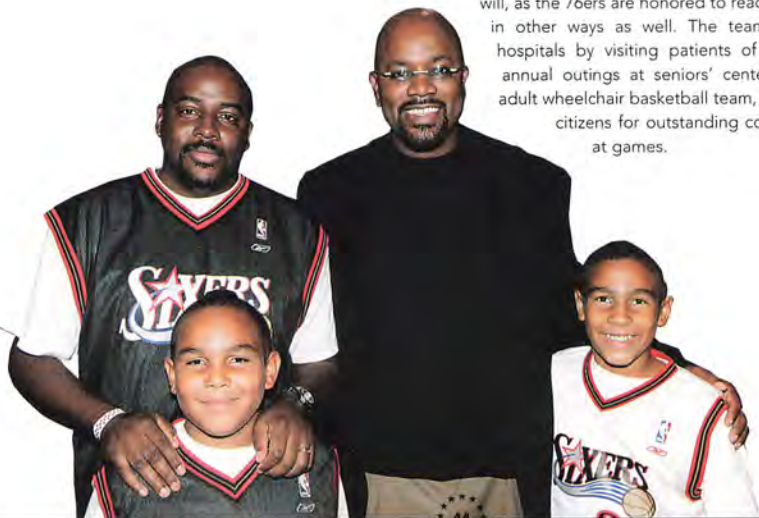

The ultimate measure of an organization's success is not only the number in the "win" column at the season's end, but what the team stands for year after year in the community.

Founded in 1996, Sixers Charities takes tremendous pride in serving the community and its children. By assisting organizations that focus on youth, recreation, health and education, our hope is to make a positive difference. We have helped create and assist in a wide variety of services, including educational and recreational programs, and provide tickets, autographed and promotional items, and publicity. Most importantly, the personal involvement and dedication of the 76ers family is what we hope will make Philadelphia a better place to live.

As partner and friend to the children of the Delaware Valley, the 76ers are primarily focused on helping kids succeed in school, form well-rounded lives, and, most of all, have fun. After all, children should have the opportunity to play, grow, dream, and ultimately, "win" at life. The Sixers reach out to area youth in many ways. The franchise's programming covers an incredible range, from monthly reading appearances at local schools, to educational initiatives on the team's website, to refurbishing playgrounds, to providing scholarships for students. Each year, the club touches over 35,000 kids in the Delaware Valley.

Children, however, are not the only beneficiaries of good will, as the 76ers are honored to reach Philadelphians in other ways as well. The team supports area hospitals by visiting patients of all ages, host annual outings at seniors' centers, sponsors an adult wheelchair basketball team, and honors local citizens for outstanding community service at games.

COMMUNITY PROGRAMS

presented by

The NBA Read to Achieve program is designed to help young people develop a life long love of reading. Read to Achieve promotes the value of reading and online literacy, as well as encourages families and adults to read regularly with young people.

The 76ers Read to Achieve program, presented by Pepsi, consists of various events including player appearances, school visits, creating reading corners and book drives. Throughout the season, players, Hip-Hop and front office staff visit schools and libraries reaching out to more than 15,000 kids and donating over 5,000 books.

During the month of March, the Sixers celebrate Reading Month with special activities highlighted by Andre's Book Drive, which encourages fans to donate a new book. This past season, over 2,000 books were donated to Philadelphia READS. Also, randomly selected children are chosen at home games in March to receive a new book on the court from a 76ers player. At halftime of each home game, the 76ers Reading Corner is open to all kids on the main concourse with special guest readers, which have included a Harlem Globetrotter, Elmo, Mike Berenstain, author of the Berenstain Bears, Susan Korman, author of P is for Philadelphia and local media members.

★ 76ERS READ FOR RONALD ★

The 76ers Read for Ronald program encourages students to read while also offering an assist to sick children and their families by supporting The Philadelphia Ronald McDonald House. The House provides shelter and emotional support for families of critically ill children being treated at area hospitals. Elementary and middle school children collect pledges for each minute read during the month of February.

In 12 years, youths representing more than 30 Delaware Valley schools have raised over $1.1 million for The House. In 2006, 26 schools raised over $100,000. Participating students receive incentives for reading and attend a special awards ceremony at The House for the top readers. 76ers forward Kyle Korver, 76ers President Billy King, World B. Free and Hip-Hop hosted last year's awards ceremony.

All who brought toys got to stay after the game to meet Dalembert for an autograph. Toys that were donated to local area children included Barbies, sports equipment, remote control cars and board games.

HOLIDAY HOOPLA

During the holiday season, the entire 76ers family including players, coaches, Hip-Hop and front office personnel visit area hospitals. The Sixers family and the children decorate stockings and create holiday crafts for children who otherwise may not be able to go home.

76ers mascot Hip-Hop loves to bring smiles to children's faces during the holiday seasons. Each year, Hip-Hop hosts Halloween Pumpkin Painting Parties and Easter Egg Decorating Parties at area hospitals. Hip-Hop, Sixers Dancers members, and front office personnel pack up supplies and Sixers treats, and they visit pediatric wards to celebrate the rabbit's favorite holidays.

Pennsylvania National Guard families were treated to a shopping spree at Target on Thursday, Dec. 15, 2005, in the Philadelphia area with "Santa Webber." Chris Webber, Santa Claus and the National Guard Family Assistance Center helped 22 children buy toys and clothes. Each child was given 15 minutes to pick three toys. They were then given another 15 minutes to select two complete clothing outfits. Lastly, the families were allowed to pick gifts for a loved one stationed in Iraq. Most families chose camcorders, MP3 players or games. One soldier received a super-sized remote control car to drive around the desert. The items were shipped courtesy of Webber to the Ar Ramadi B-Troop 1/104 Cavalry. The families were also invited to attend a Philadelphia 76ers home game as Webber's guests in "C Webb's Crew," his charity ticket section.

Christmas came early for 18 kids from the Children's Crisis Treatment Center of Philadelphia, and playing the role of Santa Claus was a 76ers player. The 76ers treated the children to an all expense paid shopping spree at the Toys "R" Us in King of Prussia. The children were allowed to spend up to $200 each on pretty much anything they wanted in the store. Guard Louis Williams and Forward Shavlik Randolph, along with Hip-Hop and Ambassador of 76ers Basketball World B. Free were on hand to help make the day even more special for the kids.

HISTORY OF

76ERS GENERAL MANAGERS

The 76ers didn't have a general manager after the team debuted in Philadelphia in May 1963. Attorney Ike Richman performed some of the duties of the job between 1963 and 1966, but it wasn't until Jack Ramsay was named to the position in 1966-67 that the team had a GM. Here is the complete listing of the franchise's general managers:

GENERAL MANAGER TENURE

Leo Ferris	1949-63
Jack Ramsay	1966-67
Don DeJardin	1970-74
Pat Williams	1974-86
John Nash	1986-90
Gene Shue	1990-92
Jim Lynam	1992-94
John Lucas	1994-96
Brad Greenburg	1996-97
[No General Manager]	1997-98
Billy King	1998-present

Billy King introduces the Sixers 2004 Draft pick (ninth overall selection), Andre Iguodala to the media.

CLUB NICKNAME

The late Walter Stahlberg, of West Collingswood, N.J., won a contest to name the club in 1963. The choice of the club's nickname was announced on Aug. 6, 1963. There were almost 500 different suggestions among the entries and Stahlberg was one of several who picked the 76ers. However his accompanying 25-word explanation was deemed the best by the judges, and he and his wife received an all-expense trip to the West Coast to see the 76ers play San Francisco.

PHILADELPHIA 76ERS UNIFORM HISTORY

1997-Present

1994-97

1991-94

1978-91

1997 –PRESENT: The Sixers unveiled a completely new look including the first major logo change since becoming the Philadelphia 76ers in August of 1963. In keeping with the traditional red and blue, the logo was “modernized” by adding silver, gold and black. For the first time in franchise history, the Sixers wore black uniforms on the road. Trimmed in red and gold, the jersey that features the word “SIXERS” on the front with white numbers trimmed in red on the back. At home, a white jersey features black numbers trimmed in red. Philadelphia added a new second road uniform during the 1999-00 season. The blue jersey sports a stylish new cut that’s full of tradition from the great Sixers teams of the 1960’s and 1970’s.

1994 – 97 (64-182): This uniform was actually a throwback to the classic Sixers look. Designed by Lucy Loeb, the front featured “SIXERS” in a more ornate block lettering. This garb was white with red and blue trim at home and red with white and blue trim on the road.

1991 – 94 (86-160): The Sixers uniform was redesigned by Champion Products and was a departure from the classic Sixers uniform. The design featured multicolored stars against a royal blue field that curved up from shorts to the jersey. The background of the away uniform remained red.

1978 – 91 (679-387): The NBA begins to regulate uniform changes more closely. A rule is installed by the league requiring teams to use an exclusive outfitter and alert the NBA one year in advance of a design change. This uniform becomes the Sixers’ hallmark, with the numeral surrounded by stars on the shorts. The road color returned to red. The uniforms were manufactured first by Wilson, then by Sand Knit. The 76ers played more games in this uniform (1,066) than any other in the history of the franchise.

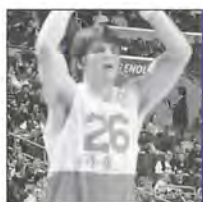

1977 – 78 (55-27): The lettering on the jersey was readjusted, with home uniforms lettered in blue and outlined in white and red, while away uniforms were royal blue with white lettering in red trim.

HARDWOOD CLASSICS NIGHTS

Since the 2002-03 season, the 76ers have been one of the teams selected by the NBA to participate in their Hardwood Classics Nights. The Sixers have donned one of their former looks for selected games during the regular season. The retro uniforms worn commemorate the franchises three World Championship teams (1982-83, 1966-67, 1954-55).

PHILADELPHIA 76ERS UNIFORM HISTORY

1976-77

1971-76

1966-70

1965-66

1976-77 (50-32): Another one-shot uniform surfaced, this time with a theme. In honor of the Bicentennial, the team turned to the cursive lettering and trim numerals of the 1970-71 season. The new uniforms were designed by Pat Williams, Al Domenico, Billy Cunningham and Sonder Levitt Advertising.

1971-76 (144-266): SonderLevitt Advertising designed a uniform that had a much longer lifespan than its predecessor. With the new art deco-like lettering, the uniforms retained the star-inset blue side stripe, a graphic element that remained a feature through the 70's. Away uniforms were royal blue with white side stripes and stars.

1970-71 (47-35): With its red-in-blue and cursive lettering, the Sixers next official home uniform (the old red garb was retained for away games), did not please Sixers suppliers. Midseason trades meant impossible turn-around times for these custom-sewn, flowing script uniforms. In the middle of the season a switch is made and "Seventy Sixers", in script, replaces "PHILA" on the front of the uniform.

1966-70 (227-100): The Sixers went to the straightforward look during their first championship run. Simple block letters with the traditional "PHILA" on the front replaced the star-spangled banner look. Road uniforms became red with blue lettering and white trim.

1965-66 (55-25): A two-tone uniform with a high waistband and long, baggy trunks was introduced. The players considered it flashy and uncomfortable to play in and it was abandoned after one season.

1963-65 (74-86): The Sixers opened their run in Philadelphia with a Betsy Ross-inspired uniform (right). Adorned with a circle of stars on both the shorts and the back of the jersey surrounding the player's number, the stars quickly became a hallmark of the Sixers uniforms. The road uniform was dark blue with red lettering and numbers. Midway through the '64-65 season the style of the letters and numbers was changed.

* - Early draft records are incomplete, so until 1956 players are listed alphabetically.

Beginning in 1957, the draft is recorded round-by-round. To enable teams to take advantage of the regional popularity of college stars, they were given the option of forfeiting their first-round pick and instead selecting, before the start of the draft, a player from the franchise's immediate geographical area. These "territorial picks," as they were known, are not factored in to the overall selection count of the draft. The territorial option was in effect through 1965.

PHILADELPHIA 76ERS

ALL-TIME ROSTER

ALL-TIME ROSTER

Through the 2006-07 season a total of 371 players have played in at least one regular season game with the Syracuse Nationals (1949-63) and/or the Philadelphia 76ers (1963-present). Please note the following:

* Denotes that a player played for more than one team during that particular season and the team-by-team breakdown was not available. Each respective stat line is reflective of the entire season's statistics, which also affects the player's total stat lines.

(N) Denotes years played in the NBL with Syracuse, before the Nationals joined the NBA in 1949-50. NBL statistics are factored in to individual NBA totals, but do not affect team statistics/records.
